- (b) Female Dogs in Heat. It shall be unlawful for the owner or harbinger of any female dog to permit the same to create a nuisance by attracting other dogs to the premises, and the same is hereby declared to be a public nuisance. If after notice by the Police Department, the owner or harbinger of the said female dog in heat does not abate the nuisance by caring for and properly confining the said female dog, the Police Department may take up and impound the said female dog and the said female dog shall not be released from impoundment unless the owner or harbinger establishes that he has the proper facilities for caring for and confining the said female dog.
- (c) Nuisance. It shall be unlawful for any dog owner or keeper to harbor, maintain or permit on any lot, parcel of land or premises under his control any dog which by any sound or cry shall disturb the peace and comfort of the inhabitants of the neighborhood or interfere with any person in the reasonable and comfortable enjoyment of life or property.

It shall be lawful for the police officer or any person duly authorized to impound dogs to go upon private property for the purpose of catching any dog to be impounded. Any person authorized to capture and impound a dog under the provisions of the Ordinance is authorized to use such means as are reasonably necessary to capture such dog, provided, however, that tranquilizer guns or other tranquilizing devices shall be used only as a last resort when a dog cannot be safely captured by any other means. If any dog cannot be safely caught and impounded because of its dangerous or vicious propensities, such dog may be summarily slain.
- (b) Notice to Owner or Harbinger of Dog. Upon the impounding of any dog it shall be the duty of the person impounding such dog to notify the owner thereof, if known. If the owner is not known, there shall be posted at the main door of the Town Hall, for a period of not less than five

- (d) Disposal of Dog Whose Owner or Harbinger Cannot be Located. If a complaint has not been filed in Municipal Court because the owner or harbinger of an impounded dog is not known or cannot be located and such dog has not been claimed within five (5) days from the date of impoundment, not counting the first day of impoundment, the dog may be destroyed in any humane manner by a police officer or such other persons authorized by the Board of Trustees of the Town of La Jara.

No dog shall be released from the pound until the owner shall have paid all charges for impounding the dog, the additional charges for maintaining the dog, and until the dog has been licensed, registered, and vaccinated in accordance with this Ordinance.
- (f) Confinement of certain dogs. There shall not be released any fierce, dangerous or vicious dog unless suitable provisions are made for it by its owner to protect the public against these propensities, and no female dog in heat shall be released unless the owner has facilities for caring for and confining such dog.

Section 7. NOTICE OF KNOWLEDGE OF VIOLATION.

- (a) Notice of Knowledge of Violation of Ordinance not Necessary for Prosecution of Owner or Harbinger. For the purpose of prosecution for violations of this Ordinance, it shall not be necessary in order to obtain a conviction to prove notice or knowledge on the part of the owner or harbinger of the dog in question that such dog was violating any of the provisions of this Ordinance at the time and place charged, it being the purpose and intent of this Ordinance to impose strict liability upon the owner or harborer of any dog for the actions, conduct, and condition of the dog.

Section 8. DOG POUND.
